Back in Wallonia

In the narrow streets of Liege

Rue de
Carre, smallest street in Liege

Stephanie and Georges Simenon

the space left when a building exploded this winter

We went into the Netherlands to Hoensbroek Castle

Subtle patterns in the stones

We are totally tourists!

The Dom in Aachen, home church of Charlemagne

Inside, it is filled with beautiful mosaics

Le Dandree

Back in Liege, we ate
at a brasserie with a 95 page beer menu

We planned to take a look at a few windmills while in Holland...

...and found this one, turning

Inside, we found the miller, who was delighted to tell us all about it...

...and we mean all

On to Amsterdam, city of canals and bicycles

Happy faces...

.... some not so

Houses tilting...

...and absurdly narrow

Back in Esneux, enjoying "la Vie Belge"

What better way to end than a tasty treat in the village?
